

KLOVE radio serves me as part of my Christian everyday worship. Without it, I would not be as uplifted. My friends and family all share the same music and guidance we receive from KLOVE radio. It is in the public interest that KLOVE remain on the air as the more people listen to it, the less they will listen to other depressing, crass and degrading music out there.